Shri A.A.Kumbhakoni for appellant.

CORAM: S.B.MHASE AND
S.R.SATHE JJ.
21st June, 2006

P.C.

. Shri Kumbhakoni, learned counsel for the appellant, makes a statement that the appellant/husband is dead. Initially in the Family Court the proceedings were filed by the appellant/husband for getting divorce from the respondent, however, the said divorce petition was dismissed by the Family Court. Thereafter this first appeal was preferred by the husband/original petitioner and pending the appeal he has expired. Under these circumstances, the appeal has become infructuous and it is accordingly dismissed as infructuous.
